Learning Outcome

Describe routines and regular activities in a wider range of social and work contexts.

Ask your partner:

- Have you ever seen snow or skated on ice? What is it like?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about celebrations, customs, and traditions about food.
- I can discuss experiences I've had or haven't had.
- I can talk about past habits.

Let's Explore!

Let's get our skates sharpened!

* Ice skates need to be "sharpened" (made more sharp) regularly to work well on the ice.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Vanessa: I used to skate sometimes when I was young, but never on Christmas Day.
Peter: I used to play hockey with the other kids a lot. We would play on the street if it wasn't cold enough to make ice.
- Vanessa: They used to make ice?
Sally: Did someone build a rink in their backyard?
Peter: Yeah. We would play until we were too cold to continue. Mom would make a vat of fries for us!
- Vanessa: I've never seen a backyard ice rink.
Peter: Some people worked on one for weeks. It would keep all of us kids outside for hours.
- Vanessa: Sounds like it was a clever way to keep you busy!
Sally: I haven't skated for a long time. Why not go next week on New Year's Day?
Peter: I haven't got any skates.
Sally: We can rent them.
Vanessa: I'll whip up some hot chocolate and treats.
Sally: We used to go to the rink early. It wasn't as crowded.
Vanessa: When we've finished we can come back here after and reheat leftovers.
Peter: It's a date!

Learning Points

The Present Perfect Tense versus The Simple Past Tense

You use the Present Perfect tense to talk about a finished action or event that is connected to the present in some way.

You use the Simple Past tense to talk about a finished action or event not connected to the present.

Look at the chart about how to form the Present Perfect tense:

We use have/has + the past participle of the verb in Present Perfect sentences.

	Past tense form	Past participle form	Example
see	saw	seen	I've never seen ...
get	got	gotten/got	I haven't got ...
skate	skated	skated	I haven't skated ...
finish	finished	finished	When we've finished ...

Examples:

- I haven't skated for a long time.
- I haven't got any skates.
- When we've finished we can come back here.
- Did someone build a rink in their backyard?
- It wasn't as crowded.

Learning Points

Used to and Would to Talk About Past Habits

Used to and would are both used to talk about actions that happened in the past.

We use used to to express a past action or state that is no longer happening. It uses -ed to show past tense.

For example: She used to ride her bike every day.

(Before, she rode her bike every day, but now she doesn't ride everyday.)

My cousins used to play in the snow all day long.

(Before, they played in the snow all day long, but now they don't play in the snow.)

We can use would to express repeated past actions and past routines.

Structure	Meaning
I used to go to the swimming pool every day.	I don't do this anymore.
She would get a large coffee after lunch.	It was her habit in the past.

Examples:

- I used to play hockey with the other kids a lot.
- We would play on the street if it wasn't cold enough to make ice.
- They used to make ice?
- We would play until we were too cold to continue.
