

Instructor: ..... Date: .....

Learner: ..... Regional Branch: .....

Program: ..... Center: .....

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Writing Spot: Feliz Navidad! Merry Christmas!

Learning Outcome

Describe routines and regular activities in a wider range of social and work contexts.

Ask your partner:

- Do you write Christmas cards to friends or family?
- What should you include in a Christmas card?
- Are you going to write Christmas cards this year?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about celebrations, customs, and traditions.
- I can thank people, respond to thanks.
- I can write a Christmas card.

Let's Explore!

Listen to Vanessa read the Christmas card she wrote to her friend, Mika, who lives in San Francisco.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Dear Mika,

I want to wish you and your family joy and happiness.

It's been over a year since we have seen each other. Thank you so much for the retro sweater and earmuffs! I am wearing the sweater right now! I saw that the gifts were from my favorite hipster store on the harbor. I'm glad that the gift certificate I sent you for the chef supply store will come in handy.

I was just thinking about you the other day and how much fun we had together at culinary school. Last week, I made that Thai chili you gave me the recipe for. I am planning to include it in my upcoming cookbook, Vanessa Cooks, if that's okay with you. I promise to include your name in the credits.

It would be nice if we could catch up over the holidays. I have a couple days off after New Year's. Maybe we can organize to meet somewhere like Nashville or Chicago. What do you think?

Thanks again for the special gifts! I am so thankful that I have a friend like you in my life.

I hope you have a wonderful Christmas season and all the best in the coming year!

Love,

Vanessa

Let's Practice!

What are you doing over the holidays?

Instructions: Read the sentences. Circle the incorrect words. Write the sentences correctly.

I hope you having an wonderful Christmas seasoning.

---

All the west in the coming near!

---

It would be niece if we could catch on over the holidays.

---

I have an couple day off after Pew Year.

---

I am so thankless that I have a friendly like your in my live.

---

I'm will to wear them skating tonight.

---

Let's Practice!

It's the holiday season! Time to start writing Christmas cards. You have just received a lovely present in the mail from a friend.

Instructions: Write a 20-40 word Christmas card to a friend.

Thank your friend for the gift. Explain why you like it or what you will do with it. Use phrases to show that you are thinking about them and their family during the Christmas season.

Use Future tenses "will" and "going to": I hope we'll see each other soon!"

Greeting: Example: Dear Claire,

---

Body paragraph. Example: Sending wishes to you and yours for a beautiful Holiday Season and a peaceful New Year.

---

Closing. Example: Love, Stephanie

---

Extension Activity

Tis the season to be jolly!

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self Assessment.

- Design 3 Christmas cards for family members.
- Write 30-45 words in each Christmas card.
- Include a greeting, body paragraph and closing.
- Choose different phrases.
- Include will, going to and present continuous for future
- Read your Christmas cards aloud to a partner.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I design 3 Christmas cards.

☐ ☐

I write Christmas card to family members.

☐ ☐

I read the cards aloud to a partner.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- earmuffs (noun): warm material worn on the ears to protect them from cold weather
e.g. Thank you so much for the retro sweater and ear muffs!
- upcoming (adjective): happening or appearing soon
e.g. We are looking forward to the upcoming event!
- credits (noun): a list of the names of the people who have worked on a book or movie e.g. I promise to include your name in the credits.
- hipster (adjective): a modern culture that values independent thinking, progressive politics, art and indie-rock, creativity, and intelligence
e.g. I saw that they were from my favorite hipster store on the harbor.
- retro (adjective): looking like or relating to styles or fashions from the past e.g. Thank you so much for the retro sweater.

Learning Points

Writing a Christmas Card

You write Christmas cards to friends and loved ones to show you are thinking about them during the holiday season.

You can include:

Your thoughts

Example:

- All my love and thoughts are with you during this Christmas season.
- Sending you my thoughts and heartfelt wishes for a wonderful Christmas.

Why you are thankful

Example:

- I am so lucky that you are part of my family.
- I am so thankful that I have a friend like you in my life.

A reflection

Example:

- Thanks for being there for me this year. You are like a Christmas gift all year round.

New Year or plans for the future

Example:

- I love the holiday season because of the time I get to spend with you. Can't wait to see you soon.

Examples:

- Wishing your family peace, love, and joy at Christmas and always.
- Wishing you a very merry Christmas.
- Happy holidays, from our house to yours.
- Sending wishes to you and yours for a beautiful holiday season and a peaceful New Year.

Learning Points

The Future

You can use different tenses to talk about the future: the Future Simple, the Present Continuous, and Be going to.

When you make a decision at the time of speaking, you use will.

Example: I hope we'll see each other soon!

For intentions (when something is already planned or definite), you use be going to.

Example: I'm going to wear my new sweater skating tonight.

For arrangements, you use the Present Continuous tense.

Example: I am planning to include it in my upcoming cookbook, Vanessa Cooks.

